The Mother's Prayer.

BY THEO. H. HILL.

"But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and to cast it to dogs." And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table."—ST. MATT. xv. 25, 26.

Truth, Lord: it is not meet
That thou should'st give me bread;
Yet famished dogs, where children eat,
May on their crumbs be fed.

I may not let Thee go
While I have tears to pray;
Nor will Thou hear me pleading so,
And cast me quite away!

They say that Thou canst save,
And I for mercy call:
No crumbs to me, Thy children gave,
But Thou art Lord of all.

Vexed by my sore distress,
"Send her away," they cry;
Yet through the murmuring throng I press,
Law at Thy feet to lie.

Rebuke has chilled my heart;
But Lord, how dare I brook,
If home'ard hopeless, I depart,
My frenzied daughter's look!

A fire burns in her brain,
And fiends torment her soul:—
At other help, I've sought in vain;
Lord, make my daughter whole!"

Prone on the earth she lay,
Clutching the Master's gown,
And turned her tortured face away
Fearing a darker frown!

Then all grew still as death;
They who had gathered there,
Like her, await, with bated breath,
The answer to the prayer.

A face divinely sweet
THE WOMAN FROM DIVINE,
Bends o'er the supplicant at His feet
A radiance benign.

A voice—a tender voice,
Replete with tearful grace,
Bids the poor sufferer's heart rejoice
Ere she beholds Him face!

In loving accents He
The WOMAN'S faith commends;
"Even as thou wilt, so let it be,"
The benediction ends.

Abashed His followers stood,
Then reverently made way
For her of alien speech and blood
They had despised that day.

And ragged hands were brushed
Of joyful tears seldom wept
As home that joyful mother rushed—
Where, lo! her daughter slept!"

How should this story cheer
Sinner, no less than saint,
To call on Him while He is near—
To pray and never faint.

Today as yesterday, the same,
He heeds the mourner's cry;
To seek—to save the lost His name—
To—to His bosom fly!

St. Mark VII—30.

JOHN T. DEWEESE.

A correspondent of the La Crosse Democrat, from Oxford, N. C., desires to know the history of the above carpet-bagger, who was elected by negroes to Congress from that State—and who is daily addressing crowds of negroes and inciting them to insurrection and begging a re-election. This is the same man who made the violent and ridiculous speech in Congress, a day or two after they let him in—asking Congress to authorize the raising of negro troops and hand arms to that State to arm them—otherwise the whites would carry the State. He admitted reconstruction was a failure, unless the negroes were armed, and then they—the Northern men—could carry any election they please—otherwise they, the carpet baggers, would all have to leave the State. His Radical friends shut him up very summarily—refused to raise militia, and took a recess—and Dewease and this band of Radicals have been clamoring ever since for a September session.

Dewease came from Indiana, and we think kept a store in Indianapolis. He came to Petersburg a camp follower—kept a small store—to trade through the lines with the Confederates—and was continually boring Gen. M. L. Smith and other Federal commanders, for permits for goods and passes for Southerners. He was very conservative then, and in addition to his trading privileges, professed to be a jack leg lawyer and very influential with the Generals and with military commissions, and humbugged the late lamented D. O. Merwin, a Confederate officer, into a law partnership, but who, finding that he was neither a lawyer or an influential man, soon dissolved partnership. Dewease, finding neither trading in goods or the law any longer profitable, left for Georgia to follow Sherman's army, and seems to have brought up in North Carolina, and finding conservatism don't pay, has turned up as a Radical politician, which we have no doubt he will make profitable.

The Indiana Democrats can tell his origin, calling and career in that State, and his speculations on loyalty.—Vicksburg (Miss) Herald.

GENERAL FRANK BLAIR'S SPEECH AT CLEVELAND—THE POLITICAL PROSPECT.—On Friday last, General Frank P. Blair, while in Columbus, en route for Cincinnati, was called upon by a large crowd of citizens, whom he delivered a short speech, from which we take the following extract:

"Fellow citizens,—I make to you my acknowledgment for this kind expression of your feelings toward me. I feel assured, however, that it is not intended as a personal compliment, but to evince your devotion to the principles of which I am a representative. They are principles which have aroused unbounded enthusiasm throughout the land. Our cause is that of the country and the Constitution. It is a cause against the despotic measures of the party in power, and it is because of those measures that the people have become aroused for the purpose of restoring the Democracy to the control of the Government. During this campaign I have traveled considerably, and I have seen enough to assure me that the Democratic party will carry the country like a tornado for Constitutional liberty.—Even the prestige of the General of our armies, against whom I have nothing personally to say, will not prevent Radicalism from being overthrown. But I am not here to make any extended remarks. I can assure you that in Pennsylvania, Indiana, [illegible] people are arousing with un-

NORTH CAROLINA.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 20,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN of NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. O-E GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

DETAILED MILITIA IN ROBESON.

We have learned some of the particulars connected with Holden's ordering out a Detailed Militia force in Robeson county. It seems that four of Holden's Squires, viz: Sylvester Albin, Allen Watters, D. Evans and B. J. Leith, living in one little and not very reputable corner of the county, called White Horse, bordering on South Carolina, united in an application for "authority to organize a Police force" for the county.—This application was returned by the "Adjutant General," under orders from the "Governor," for an additional signature—the law requiring five; whereupon, the name of E. K. Proctor was attached, the paper returned, and the Executive mandate issued.

Leaving out of consideration the character of the parties making this requisition, here are five men living in one little nook of the County, without the concurrence, assent or approval, and even against the wishes, of the people of the County at large, and moved by party malice and treasonable designs, manipulating for having the County saddled with the expense of this Detailed Militia,—the purpose of which is to excite riot and bloodshed, and the presence of which will almost infallibly have that effect. We suppose, however, that Gen. Meade's recent order will knock this and all other similar schemes in the head.

The character of the parties making this application will throw an additional dark shade over this shameful transaction. Albin is an illiterate carpet bagger; Watters, Evans and Leith are ignorant and low men, we have been informed; while the English man, Proctor, has recently been charged with being a bigamist,—having one wife in Illinois as well as in North Carolina,—and with passing under an alias. It is charged that his real name is Knocke, that he is ineligible to the position which he holds, by reason of fraud, and that his offences will be made the subject of indictment! And of such is—Radicalism! And this is a fair sample of the men by whom, and the manner in which, this police force is to be called out!

MAINE.

Why will not the Radical authorities in this State give the official result of the late election? They have it in their possession, but they dare not publish it. Is there no way of getting it out of them? Will they be so kind as to let the country know if the Jacobin majority in Maine did actually reach fifteen thousand?

IMPORTANT ORDER FROM GEN. MEADE.

The following synopsis of an order from Gen. Meade is opportune. We regret that we were prevented from giving the whole telegram on Saturday, in the same paper in which the Holden-Miles correspondence appears. Indeed, had they waited a day, the publication of Gen. Meade's order would have rendered the publication of their correspondence wholly unnecessary, and would have avoided any unpleasant suspicions which its publication has excited.

Our object, and, we believe, the object of the entire Democratic organization in this State, is peace and nothing but peace. We have no reason to doubt either Gen. Meade's or Gen. Mill's' desire to preserve peace and order, and we are confident that the peace of the country, or the peace of neighborhoods, or the peace of the races, will not be disturbed, if the Radical authorities and people, like the Democrats, are only intent upon peace.

If "Gov." Holden desires peace and quiet, if he is willing that the people of North Carolina shall have a fair and free expression and exercise of the right of suffrage, we repeat, what we have affirmed time and again, that armed forces of any kind are not necessary to preserve it. All that is needed, is, let him inculcate in public and in private lessons of peace, quiet and harmony; let him insist upon it, through the Leagues and through the presses which he controls, that the interests of all classes and all races in the State are identical—that one cannot suffer, cannot be damaged, without injury to the rest; above all, if he will so conduct his administration, as to assure the public mind that he desires nothing but justice, and harmony, and good will among all classes, and if he will assume the temper and policy of a friend of the people, as every Executive should, and lay aside all personal and partizan considerations, he will not only relieve the public anxiety, but will reinstate himself, perhaps, to some extent, in the confidence of the public.

Gen. Meade's order plainly indicates that he regards the organization of a special armed police force, or a detailed militia, as well as any other armed organization, in the Southern States, as a violation of the law of Congress, and, he might have added, of the Constitution of the United States, and he is, clearly, in duty bound to prevent all such organizations. None of them are necessary, and while every citizen has a right, for the defence of his personal rights and premises, to bear arms and possess them, yet, under the law, as it exists, no combination, whether Radical or Democratic, should be allowed to unite in an armed organization, for any political or other object, not strictly within the purview of the civil law.

But when Radicals are threatening to arm one part of the community against the other, as a menace or threat or for any purpose, and while the negroes are encouraged to form armed Leagues and organizations, and to drill and to possess themselves of arms, right under the eye and in the teeth of the civil and military power of the government, can it be wrong or improper for individuals, among the whites, to possess themselves of such means of personal defence as lie within their reach?

No Democrat objects, (indeed they vastly prefer,) if the government, State or National, has any serious apprehensions of revolt, which we believe, however, are wholly unfounded, or that any body proposes to interfere with the freedom of elections or to create riot or disturbance, that the troops of the United States,—white troops, especially,—under the command of judicious officers, shall be stationed at proper points to preserve order and quiet. In this respect we fully sustain Gen. Meade's order. Our people are not afraid of United States troops under proper officers. But there are ideas in his order, which we could hope he would reconsider, as, in our judgment, they are palpably in violation of the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution, and the freedom of elections. We have no objection to any officer or private of the United States army, in his character as a citizen, attending public political meetings and taking note of all their proceedings, but is not Gen. Meade's idea of sending officers or soldiers, dressed up in the paraphernalia of war, to such meetings, which can only have the effect to overawe the timid and prevent such freedom of debate and discussion as the people have been used to, contrary to law? And, pray, where is the authority, now, in this State, to station an armed force near the polls on an election ground, to preserve order? Can such elections in any proper sense be free? Certainly not. Is not this a violation of Gen. Grant's recent order, in which, while he inculcates the duty upon Commanders to preserve the public order in aid of the civil authorities, he yet admonishes them against the obeying an order or yielding to a request, which, in itself, violates fundamental law?

With these exceptions, we are glad to see Gen. Meade's order, which we shall publish in full, when we receive it. The following is the telegram, giving a synopsis of the order:

It is entitled "General Order No. 27," and distributes the forces under General Meade's command to points which he deems necessary to enforce the laws and preserve order.

The order says: "Whereas, by act of Congress approved March 2nd., 1865, it is made the duty of the military authorities to preserve the peace at the polls, at every election that may be held in any State; and whereas this duty has become more imperative, from the existing political excitement in the public mind, from the recent organization of civil government, and from the fact that Congress has, by statute, prohibited the organization of military forces in the several States of this Department: It is therefore ordered, [here follows distribution of troops and instructions to the District Commanders.]

District Commanders will instruct Post Commanders in their duties and the relative position of the civil and military powers; will impress on Post Commanders that they are to act in aid and co-operation of, and in subordination to, the civil authorities; that they are to exercise discretion and judgment, unbiased by political or other prejudices; that their object should be exclusively to preserve the peace, uphold law and order, and that they must be satisfied that such is the object of the civil officers calling on them for aid; must, in all cases, when time will permit, apply for instructions to superior authority, but they must at all hazards preserve the peace and not be restrained by technical points, when, to their conscientious judgment, under the rules above set forth, it is their duty to act.

Post Commanders, on being notified of the holding of any political meeting, may send an officer, and, if necessary, a detachment, to watch the proceedings and see that peace is preserved.

To the people of the several States, composing this Department, the Major General commanding appeals that they will co-operate with him and the civil authorities in sustaining law and order, in preserving peace and avoiding the scenes of riot and bloodshed, and wanton distruction of property and life, which have already in some instances been enacted in the Department. He urges abstinence from all inflammatory and incendiary appeals to the passions, and a discontinuance of the keeping open of liquor shops on the days of political meetings and of election, the abstaining from carrying arms and asserting the individual right of construing laws by force of arms. No just cause is ever advanced by a resort to violence. Let there be charity and forbearance among political opponents.—Whatever may be the result, let each good citizen determine that all, under the law, who have a right to the ballot, shall exercise it undisturbed.

If there are disputed points of law, let them be referred to the Courts, and let not political Clubs, or other irresponsible bodies, construe and undertake to execute the law. This appeal is made in the earnest hope that the Major General Commanding can rely on the good sense and correct judgment of the mass of the people, and that he will not be compelled to resort to the exercise of the power with which he is entrusted, and which he will most reluctantly employ; but he thinks it his duty to make known that so far as the power under his command will admit, he will not permit the peace to be broken; that he will not be restrained in the conscientious discharge of his duties by the technicalities of laws, made when the present anomalous condition of affairs was neither anticipated or provided for.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

The late disclosures made by Mr. Delmar, a very thorough statistician and financier, connected with the United States Treasury Department, in regard to the prospective increase of the public debt, under Radical rule, have excited general discussion at the North, and every effort has been made by the Radical press to cast doubt upon the statements of Mr. Delmar and to find some loop hole to effect an escape from the inevitable conclusions to which he arrived.

The ability of Hon. Robt J. Walker, and the confidence reposed in his judgment in matters of finance,—a confidence participated in by the country at large,—has led some of his friends to urge upon him the duty of examining the books of the Treasury, which Mr. Secretary McCulloch most readily granted. This examination has been made, and Mr. Walker thus endorses the figures of Mr. Delmar, in a letter to a friend in Philadelphia. It is as follows:

"Extract from a letter dated Washington, October 6, 1868, from Hon. Robert J. Walker, late Secretary of the Treasury, to a friend in Philadelphia:

"In reply to your inquiry, I would say, that the table of the public debt of the United States at various periods, referred to in the National Intelligencer of yesterday morning, is accurate in all respects, having been taken from the books of the United States Treasury. You ask me if it is a fact that the annual expenditures of the Government have been increased, as therein stated, over forty six millions of dollars, ($46,056,559,) by an augmentation, to that extent, of the yearly interest in currency, of the public debt since 30th April, 1865. I answer, that it is an indisputable fact, and, I will add, that from a careful consideration of the condition of the Treasury, it is clear, that this annual interest will go on increasing. It is possible that there may be a small reduction of the public debt, last month, but this reduction, if made, will be in debts bearing mainly no interest, or in war claims withheld, whilst the debt bearing coin interest will be augmented.

"That there is an increased yearly expenditure, exceeding forty-six millions of dollars since April 30 1865, to meet the augmented interest (as currency) of the public debt, is certain. This is the true test of our financial condition, and, to me, it seems certain, that nothing but a total change of policy will save us from national bankruptcy. This change of policy must be based upon a vast decrease of our annual expenditures, as recommended in my financial letter of November last. We must abolish the Freedmen's Bureau; we must recall the army from the South, and reduce it to a moderate peace establishment. We must terminate there the joint rule of the negro and the bayonet, (and, slavery, and secession having been forever abandoned,) permit the Southern States, in obedience to the Federal Constitution, to govern themselves as before the rebellion. The fact of this vast increase of the annual interest of the public debt is not a disputed question. It rests on the scripts from the books of the Treasury, and cannot be denied. This item of expenditures for the increased annual interest of the public debt is nearly equal to double the entire yearly expenditures of Mr. Polk's administration before the Mexican war, and nearly equal to its subsequent annual expenditures, including the war, and heavy payments for the principal and interest of the public debt. But even if we take the 30th. of November last, the date of the last annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury, we find the increased annual interest, as currency, of the public debt, $36,574,329 from the 30th. of November last, (1867,) to the 31st. of August, 1868, being an augmentation at the rate of three millions of dollars a month, or thirty six millions of dollars a year. At this rate of increased annual expenditure for interest only on the 30th. of November, 1869, a little over a year, this single item of yearly disbursements would reach seventy two millions of dollars. It is clear, then, that the Radical policy leads rapidly and certainly to national bankruptcy, and that nothing can save us but a change of men and measures."

RADICAL SENTIMENT.—The Washington Star, a duty Radical sheet, in an exultant editorial on the subject of negro domination in South Carolina, says:

"It is amusing as well as instructive to see the proud chivalry of the Palmetto State in humble supplication at the feet of the whilom slaves, who have risen from "chattels personal" to the dignity of manhood, and to the privileges of freemen and voters.

What a change is there, my countrymen! It that is not Shakespeare, it is something like it, so let it slide."

Would it be believed that the author of the above is a white man?—Savannah News.

For the Sentinel.

Husband vs. Wife and Wife vs. Husband.

To the Honorable Edwin G. Reade, Supreme Court Judge:

As this is a free country, I trust that you will not take it amiss if I examine, in a respectful manner, the opinion of the Supreme Court, as delivered by you, in the case of State vs. Rhodes, 1 Phillips' Law, 453.

Rhodes was indicted for whipping his wife. The proof against him was "that he struck her three licks with a switch, the size of his finger, without any provocation, except some words uttered by her and not collected by the witness." He was tried in the Superior Court, before Judge Little, who held that "he had a right to whip her with a switch as large as his thumb." Of course, therefore, he was acquitted. The solicitor for the State appealed—the verdict being a special one.

Examine the case, as reported, Judge, and you will see that I state it correctly.—And now for the opinion of the Supreme Court.

Your opinion correctly states that there are no statutes, decisions, nor settled common law principles binding on the Court. On the contrary, you make the decision, argue it out, and put it forth as settling one way what you were perfectly at liberty to decide almost any other way. In other words, the subject was "at sea," as you state, and you were in no sense tied down.

And now, Judge, excuse me for saying that I cannot, for my life, examine the decision, without a smile, at least. I do not laugh outright, as you did, at Waugh's temperance report. Nor do I get so full of satire as you did at Doctor Hooper's address. But a good broad smile I cannot keep down.

After properly throwing out of the case the word is used by the wife, because their nature was not proved, you say:

"We must, therefore, consider the violence as unprovoked. The question is, therefore, plainly presented, whether the Court will allow a conviction of the husband, for moderate correction of the wife, without provocation."

Were you not a Judge, I would ask you to explain how a woman or anything else can be "corrected" without being wrong—And it puzzles a plain person to understand how a correction or beating can be anything but immoderate, where the thing beaten has done nothing to deserve it. But more of this presently.

You say: "We will no more interfere where the husband whips the wife, than where the wife whips the husband."

Here I am afraid to discuss the point too freely. I know many a woman who can whip you and me, both together.

Do you really mean to say, Judge, that it is a free fight between husband and wife, in North Carolina? Suppose we reverse Rhodes' case, and the question were "plainly presented" as to the wife giving Rhodes "moderate correction without provocation." As I understand you, each party stands on the same ground exactly, and whoever can whip in the fight is "master (or mistress) of the situation." There is no law to check their fighting. They may fight every day and every hour. The only limit is that after they fight until one is victor, the vanquished must not be further bruised.

But examine the matter further. It is a fight, you say, on equal terms. Each may lawfully overcome the other, and each, of course, lawfully resist being subdued. Pray tell me, then, if they went into the fight willingly and were of good pluck, at what stage of the fight the law could take hold of either party? Each is lawfully trying to get the upperhand and fighting valiantly against subjugation. No law restrains either from striking first, nor from returning blow for blow, violence for violence, death for attempted death.

You say: "Two boys under 14 years old fight on the play ground and the Courts will not notice it." But in the same sentence you say they are punishable somewhere for it, to wit: in the school room or at home. So the analogy between the boys and the married couple fails.

A free fight between husband and wife! Do you hear that, ye small men, with large wives? The Courts afford you no redress, if she gives you "moderate correction without provocation." "Family government" requires you to stand and take a switching from her, whenever she is inclined to administer it. She makes you sweep the house, sift the meal, milk the cows, wash the dishes and fly around generally and take a whipping into the bargain. If you go to Judge Reade about it, he says, "My dear sir, your wife has no right in law to whip you, but if she does whip you, even for nothing, the law says you must take it." And this brings me to the next idea laid down, to wit:

"We do not hold that the husband has the right to whip the wife, but we will not interfere with family government." Quite comforting to a woman, no doubt. I would like to see Judge Reade tell that to one of our back woods women, whose husband had given her a whipping for nothing.

Really, Judge, you will discover, if you will read your opinion over, that, instead of a family government with the husband settled by law as the head of it, you have jostled the authority of every married man in the State.

In the next place, you will find that your decision makes the wife the perfect slave of the husband, differing in no respect from old slavery, unless you were in earnest about her whipping him, in which event he would be her slave.

And, finally, Judge, let me suggest to you that Rhodes' case calls for no such principles as you lay down. And if it did, your principles are wrong. Law should not give men power and say they have no "right" to use it. They will use it even towards their wives. Bad men will use it at once. Moderate men will gradually get at it, too. The only safety for society is to have laws to make men do right. Good laws make good men and in return good men make good laws. And thus they act and re act on each other. And this I say: Wherever a Court can see that either party has without cause inflicted corporal violence on the other, our Courts ought to stop it, as malicious, and not add to the wrang fing, by proclaiming that either party, no matter how wrong, may "correct" the other, no matter how much in the right.

I protest, with energetic vehemence, against allowing any woman to whip her husband. St. Paul tells her to be in subjection to her husband.

In her contract of marriage she promised to obey her husband.

Our Courts heretofore have told her that her duty is obedience to her husband.

With the foregoing authorities, I will not set still and allow her to be taught that she may whip him, if she can.

On the other hand, while we must, as always heretofore, hold the man as the head of the family, as having the highest authority, because responsible in law, yet family government does not require the husband to have the authority of a master. Family government, indeed! A man of idle, drunken habit, supported by an industrious, affectionate wife, returns home, and, despite all her efforts to please him, whips her with a switch like she were a dog. This is family government! On the other hand, a gentlemen, absent from home, hears that a negro woman, that he has hired, has struck his wife, whipped his children, and cut up generally. On his return home, a few days afterwards, he asks the offender about it and she denounces him as a low scoundrel. He slaps her jaws. This is not family government. It is a Court House job. He may whip his wife, whom he has before God promised to cherish and love, when she is faultless and be a drunken brute, but to compel an impudent hireling with a black skin to behave herself is a high handed infraction of the criminal law! So we go.

CHOWAN.

From the Delaware Gazette, Oct. 7.

Delaware.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The Inspectors' election took place in Delaware on Tuesday afternoon. The result is a glorious victory for the Democratic party throughout the State.

At this writing we have not heard from Kent and Sussex counties.

The result in New Castle county (612 Democratic majority) is one over which every man who loves his country, its peace and prosperity in the future, must rejoice. The victory in the county is complete and overwhelming, far surpassing the brightest anticipations of the Democracy.

In the city of Wilmington the Democratic party have the greatest cause to rejoice. Here we have carried four precincts out of seven—although we may be cheated out of one by an unscrupulous Judge—and reduced the Radical majority of 514 in September to 9 votes. This was far better than any Democrat hoped, and clearly proves that the people of Wilmington have determined on giving the Democratic party a triumphant victory in November to crush out forever negro equality and negro suffrage.

Delaware sends an October greeting to Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, and asks to be considered as a contestant with Connecticut and all other States for the banner in November.

There never was so large a vote polled in the city or county at the Inspectors' election. Whole vote in the city 2,914.

LATER.

The Republican majority in Wilmington is only nine votes, which is a Democratic gain of 205 since the Mayor's election last month. New Castle county gives a Democratic majority of 612—a gain of 491 over the vote of 1866. In Wilmington the Democrats elect a majority of the Inspectors, and in the county have twelve out of seventeen. The Gazette says the vote polled was unusually large!

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos. W Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of M. Nash's crossing on the Tarboro Branch Railroad.

The Tract consists of

of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 30 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several sempervering Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.

The Dwelling, A modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Land.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3,000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. CROW, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,793.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No. 15,273.... $5,000

The sale of valuable property in Edgecombe, advertised by Messrs. Wm. M. Pippen and Jno. S. Dancy, will take place on the 27th of October, instead of 27th of November, as heretofore erroneously published.

"THE MOTHER'S PRAYER."—We have the pleasure of publishing, on our first page, this morning, a gem, entitled "The Mother's Prayer," from the charming pen of our fellow-townsman, Theo. H. Hill, Esq. Like most of the other inspirations of his Muse, it is tender and beautiful.

THE "Woman Insulter," of Saturday, gives both the telegrams announcing Chief Justice Chase's endorsement of Mr. Seymour, and, also, all telegraphic allusion to Gen. Meade's Order, in which it is declared that the Southern States are prohibited by Congressional enactment, from enrolling military organizations!!

ENCOURAGING SIGNS.

The late mails bring us the most hopeful rumors that Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana will range themselves on the side of the Constitution, the Union, Civil Liberty and the white man's government, in the election on to-morrow.

Connecticut is confidently claimed by our friends. A Washington letter writer, of the 8th, says:

"Governor English was in this city to-day. He called upon the President. Governor English says the vote in Connecticut on Monday last, as understood in that State, is favorable to the Democrats, and that Connecticut will certainly give a large majority for Seymour and Blair."

The same correspondent says:

"Congressman Randall writes from Philadelphia to a Government official here, that the 'Quaker City' will give a Democratic majority on Tuesday next of five thousand, and is equally confident of victory throughout the State of Pennsylvania."

For the Sentinel.

PRAY FOR THE COUNTRY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We believe that the time for prayer from all of God's people. The situation of the country demands a special interposition of Almingty God. He gave us the government we have. Will we not bear prayer for its preservation?

At a school house in Wake county, near P. Stone's, the undersigned persons have put their names to the following. Will not God people everywhere imitate the example.

"We, the undersigned, desire to form ourselves into a band of praying people, who will pray for ourselves and for the good of the country and for the prosperity of true religion in the land.

R. P. Stone, J. L. Stone, Lewis Crowder, Wm. Sorrell, Z. Robards, A. B. Yates, J. D. Yates, S. Martin, L. D. Ford, J. J. Edwards, Thomas Crowder, David Sauls, P. A. Sorrell, W. M. Sorrell, Z. Ford, Ed. Chappel, Chappell, Bettie House, Penelope Sorrell, Emma Adams, E. S. Stone, D. House, Caleb, J. C. King, P. A. Yates, E. J. Sorrell, S. P. Stone, J. E. House, Helen Sorrell and A. Stone."

The proposition is a good one, and, if the prayers were followed by Christians, general revival would be accomplished.

WAKE.

THE DEATH OF FORNEY'S MANY FALSEHOODS.

Special telegraph to the Press.

PENNSYLVANIA THE REAL BATTLE GROUND.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Gen. Frank P. Blair, while here the other day, gave it as his opinion that Pennsylvania was the real battle ground of the present campaign, and that the success of the Democratic ticket there next week."

We say Gen. Blair's own words of assurance as to the success of the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania." He expresses to all his friends who called on him in this city his unbounding confidence that Pennsylvania's vote would be decisive in favor of the Democracy, and he was equally hopeful of the vote of Ohio and Indiana.—Nat. Intel.

Thus the National Intelligencer is disposing of Forney's falsehoods.

A WORD TO HONEST REPUBLICANS.

We make no appeal to those native white Radicals who have lucrative offices in this State. They are out of our reach. They have been in market too long,—each with his price pinned on his old tattered coat. They have been bought, and paid for, and are emphatically and hopelessly "lost men."

But there are honest men, claimed by the Radicals to be in unison with them, whom we know to have either given in a reluctant adhesion, or who are now in doubt whether it is not their duty, under a controlling, imperious necessity, and under stringent compulsion, to cease further efforts to accomplish the desired Constitutional restoration. Their souls pant for peace and they shrink in alarm from a further Constitutional and legal resistance, to that quiet of despotism which they, as well as we, feel to be brooding over us all. This is the peace of the sword. It is no peace at all—anything but real peace. It is the order that reigned in Warsaw. It is Buonaparte's peace: L'Empire—c'est la Paix. It can never last, until the great laws of nature are reversed, and the law of the Great God is overthrown.

But is there no remedy,—no hope? There is a remedy. There is a hope. It is in the ballot-box. And we call upon these honest Radicals—present or prospective—whose impulses are patriotic, but whose faith is entirely too little, to lift up their heads and take courage. The Constitutional party is making a noble struggle, it may be the last, for the preservation of that freedom which our fathers won, and left to our charge, to cherish and forever defend. There is hope that peace may be preserved; that our Constitution may yet be saved; and that our dear old State may once more hold up her head, without blushing, and take her rank, where she used to stand, among the "free and independent States." Doubting men! that necessity before which your souls have shuddered, is passing away. That conquest, which has frightened your spirits from propriety, is already relaxing. Better and brighter times are dawning upon us. Better and kinder feelings among those who were once our foes, already prevail. The harsh and vindictive feelings that followed the war are already softened. The hearts of hundreds of thousands, that once breathed threatenings and slaughter on our devoted heads, are now beginning to melt. They have witnessed our woes; they have seen our patience, and wondered at our meek submission; and they feel that it would be unworthy of them, and wantonly cruel to us, to press the yoke on our unresisting necks. When brave enemies once become friends, they are friends indeed.—The majority of the Northern people, we hope, are now our friends. They hold out their hands. They tell us that there is a remedy—a Constitutional, peaceful remedy, for our admitted oppressions. They ask us to resort with them to that only remedy.—Shall we, can we, hesitate?

Your votes, ye men of little faith, cast with ours, will raise the old State above the necessity, by which you fear we are hopelessly bound. Your vote may possibly ensure the success of the great and hopeful Constitutional party that has so unexpectedly come to our aid—to our rescue. Your vote may turn the scale, and conduct us triumphantly to the only possible remedy for the ills we suffer. There is yet a chance of salvation. We may yet be redeemed from the thraldom which your souls abhor as much as ours. But if, in acting together, we should fail at last, our efforts, even then, will not have been in vain. We shall thereafter be a united people. We will submit together, as friends, to our common fate.—We will labor, thereafter, side by side, as patriots, as true North Carolinians, should,—to make the best of our sad condition, and quietly together work out the problem. We will then, after this last unavailing struggle, (if Heaven should not crown it with success,) labor, with sorrowful hearts it may be, but with our efforts united, to improve, as best we may, our own neglected and impoverished affairs. We will then, brothers in distress, submit, as in duty bound, and bide our time, to ameliorate by Constitutional and legal and peaceful means that system of policy which can never certainly be our choice, but to which we together must give submission, with whatever grace and patience we may command.

Again we say, let all honest men be united in this great and, it may be, last struggle for the right. Let us dare to act on our honest instincts, "without fear;" it will certainly be "without reproach." It can do no harm. It may be productive of almost infinite good. Read and ponder the peaceful "remedy" proposed by that calm and pure and patriotic Northern statesman, ex Attorney General Stanbery; and then courageously follow the impulses of your hearts, up right indeed, but a deal too timid!

SHAMEFUL.—We learn that the Henderson Radicals treated Judge Tourgee very badly at Graham on Saturday last. Mr. Smith, President of the North Carolina Railroad, told the Judge he should not speak, as he was a disorganizer and the party wanted nothing to do with him. The Judge told him he had understood. As (Smith) was President of the North Carolina Railroad, but did not recognize him as President of the State or United States, and that he would speak. (Bully for the Judge, the "respectable candidate.") After Col. Billy and his friends had spoken, the Judge arose and commenced to speak, when the two Billys ordered the band to play and the negroes to yell—which was done in a forcible manner. The Judge tried for about one hour to get a hearing, but could only put in a word, now and then—which he did with telling effect on the two Billys—Henderson and Smith. This was a very naughty trick in the Henderson men and ought to make the "respectable Radicals" all leave the party and rally for Judge Tourgee. Give the Judge a fair chance, as all we or his friends ask.—Greensboro Times.

CATTLE.—Six hundred stock cattle, purchased in North Carolina by William H. Rogers, of Loudoun, passed through our streets on Thursday. They will be bought and grazed by the farmers of upper Fauquier and Loudoun counties.—Warrenton (Va.) Index.

Secretary Seward was born on the 16th of May, 1801. It is reported to us from Washington that he is to be married again next week.—N. Y. Tribune.

RADICAL OFFICE HOLDERS.

The recent developments made in the conduct of the canvass, on the part of the Radicals, show their utter desperation and their purpose to force every office holder in their interest to expend the best portion of his living to aid the Radical cause.—Nothing will go farther to confirm the suspicions of the public, that Radical office holders are put in to steal and filch the earnings of the people, in order that they may be the better prepared to aid in fastening Radical rule upon the country. Even Mr. Wells, we believe it was, a Radical Treasury officer, remarked, in one of his recent publications, that, enormous as the receipts of the Public Treasury were, having been over $1,500,000,000, since the war closed, not more than one half, that had been collected out of the people, had ever reached the Public Treasury.

Confirmatory of the demoralizing character of office-holding in the country, at the present time, is the fact that the Radicals have been, and are, imposing the severest tax upon the office-holders, in order to carry the elections in Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. It is understood that a most unexampled amount of money has been scattered broad cast over those States. The heavy per centage now demanded from the office-holders exceeds any thing heretofore required. Men, holding offices worth $6,000, are expected to pay $3,000, or less in the same proportion. The office holders, of course, cannot bear this heavy drain, and must make it good by the peculations of office. The following letter was sent, last month, to a good Conservative office-holder, who, not being willing to be caught in the trap, authorizes its disclosure:

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN, 1868.

REPUBLICAN UNION STATE COMMITTEE,
ROOMS, FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL,
NEW YORK, Sept. 28, 1868.

To C. G. Franklin, Deputy Naval Officer:

DEAR SIR:—For the purpose of defraying the proper and legitimate expenses of the approaching election, the State Committee are soliciting contributions from the friends of the Union cause and the beneficiaries of the Republican Union party.

The amount which we have deemed it proper to ask your office to contribute to aid in conducting the campaign is $3 000, which you will please remit to Waldo Hutchins, Esq., Treasurer, No. 40, Wall St., New York. Yours, very truly,

HAMILTON HARRIS, Chm'n.
JAMES TERWILLIGER, Secretary.

STATE MATTERS.

A Democratic Glee Club has been organized in Newbern.

One of the grandest Seymour and Blair Barbecues and Mass Meetings of the campaign will take place at Lilesville, Anson Co., on the 28th and 29th. All the Pee Dee section will be largely represented.

Here they come,—leaving the sinking ship by scores! The Asheville News publishes the withdrawal, from the Leagues, of four citizens of Henderson, seven of Buncombe, eight of Madison, three of Jackson and twenty-six of Yancey—forty-eight in one batch! The News says that many of these have, heretofore, been leading Radicals.

The Asheville News is pleased to find that the Commissioners of Buncombe are disposed to secure a fair election, by appointing, as Inspectors, at each precinct, almost an equal number of men of either party.

The Lay Deputies from North Carolina present at the Triennial Convention of the P. E. Church, at present in session in New York, are Hon. W. H Battle and Messrs. Robert Strange, R. H. Smith and A. J. DeRosset.

The Edgecombe Commissioners have followed the shameless example set them by those of Wayne county. They require the voters of three Districts, some of them distant, to come to Tarboro to vote, when they could as easily have opened the polls at regular places in these precincts.

The Goldsboro' Messenger says that the negroes parade nightly in the suburbs of that town, with martial music and under the instruction of one who seems to be well versed in the Infantry drill. They are "fixing" for Holden's militia, doubtless.

The carpet-bag Deputy Sheriff of Jones county, one Charles Bentley, a few days since, committed a most brutal rape on the person of a little girl, not ten years of age, living with him. As soon as his villainy was discovered, he decamped North. A reward of $200 has been offered for his apprehension by the Commissioners of the county. He is described as being five feet, ten inches high, of light complexion, square-ly-built, and about twenty seven years of age.

The Charlotte Times has a notice of the great Mass Meeting in Salisbury, on Thursday. It says: "We are told that not less than 6,000 persons were present. John Q Adams, candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, first addressed the meeting. We have no report of his speech, further than that it was worthy of the distinguished gentleman's reputation. Col. Cowan, of Wilmington, was next introduced. He is an eloquent and impressive speaker. Gov. Vance followed him, and it is enough to say that his effort was as telling as his speeches usually are. At night there was a torch light procession and fine works, but of that we will have to wait for the Old North State, before we can say more. Altogether, it was a magnificent demonstration."

OUR PROSPECTS.—The political prospects of this and the counties surrounding us brighten every day. The people are becoming aroused to the importance of the issues that have to be passed upon by them at the next election, and with all the trickery that all the office-holders resort to they are not able to keep the eyes of the white people blinded to the ruinous policy of the administration. If it were prudent we could give the names of dozens of men in our county who have heretofore been acting with the Radical party, who have left it and are going with the Conservatives. The Fifth District will give a rising of new and popular men. Sentinel.

FROM NEWBERN—GEN MILES AND "GOV." HOLDEN.

NEWBERN, Oct. 10, P. M.

In the correspondence between General Miles and Governor Holden of this State, the latter states that a box of arms was recently found concealed in this city belonging to a certain political organization. The arms referred to were found in a house used for the meetings of the UNION LEAGUE, and were concealed in a coffin. Several coffins supposed to contain arms have recently been sent out in the country, by prominent Radicals in this vicinity.

"GONE A GLIMMERING."—The creature bearing of the euphonious name of John H. Everett, who lately created some excitement in this community by the practice of some of his damnable villainy, has not been heard of in these parts since his sudden departure, during the recent examination which he instituted at this place. We don't know where he has gone to, and, what's further, we don't care, so that he never returns to his old haunts. We wouldn't be surprised, however, if that African company of which would like to see their fugitive captain for a few minutes, hey?

We copy the above from the Roanoke, N. C., News, and can locate Everett for our cotemporary. We are informed that he is now in this city, and it is quite as well for our people to bear in mind that he is the fellow who had negro militia carried to Weldon to arrest citizens whom the Radical Sheriff said he could take charge of without resistance.—Newbern Virginian.

ST. LOUIS MORE THAN TWO THOUSAND DEMOCRATIC.—St. Louis, Oct. 3.—The registration of this county closed last night, showing a total of 31,322 qualified voters, and an excess of 5,509 over the registry of 1866, when the Radicals polled between 12,000 and 13,000 votes. It is estimated they cannot poll over 13,000 this year, as then every Radical was registered, only Democrats being excluded, and the natural increase has been at least offset by the changes against the negro policy. Allowing that ten per cent. of the registered votes will stay away from the polls, and that all the loss falls upon the Democrats, they still will carry it by over 2,000 majority.—Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer.

At the late "monster" gathering of "soldiers and sailors," in Philadelphia, there were but two men present of any note whatever. One of these was Burnside, and the other Kilpatrick. Comment is unnecessary.

STATE OF GEORGIA,
THOMAS COUNTY.
REGULAR TERM SUPERIOR COURT.

MILTON C. SMITH, Admr. on estate of Mary Atkinson, dec. vs. ELIJAH PRINGLE, W. H. PRINGLE, } BILL for Direction and Distribution in Thomas Superior Court.

It appearing to the Court that Mrs. Mary Atkinson, late of Thomas county, Georgia deceased, died intestate without husband or child surviving her, and that the heirs at law of said deceased are the descendants of her brothers and sisters, most of whom reside without and beyond the limits of the state of Georgia, and that the Bill in the above stated case can not be served on them personally, it is therefore on motion ordered by the Court that service of said Bill be perfected by publication, on Elijah Pringle, Elijah McCoy, John F. Gordon, Jane Porter, Nancy P. Chambers, Susan Anderson, Sarah Pringle, John Pringle, Mary Neely, Kennedy Pringle, Wm. Pringle, by publishing this interlocutory Decree once a month for four months before the next Term of this Court in some public gazette of this State. And it further appearing that four of the brothers and sisters of said deceased, to wit: Sarah Pringle, William Pringle, Elizabeth Pringle and Abram Pringle, aforesaid, leaving descendants the names of many being unknown, and who are or may be interested in said estate, it is therefore further decreed by this Court that a copy of this Decree be published in some newspaper once a month for four months previous to the next Term of this Court published each at the Capitols of the States of South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas, that all the relatives of said deceased, who may be entitled to any of said estate, may come in and be made parties and receive their portion of said estate.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE,
FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3,310 coils against 25,193 last year."

Winchester Repeating Rifle!

TWO SHOTS A SECOND!!

THE ATTENTION of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

"I regard the 'Winchester' as the most effective fire-arm I have ever seen. Its accuracy is remarkable, while its range and penetration equal any gun I have used. In my opinion, it is the best breech-loader yet invented."

Two sizes are made: A rifle, weighing nine and a-half pounds and carrying seventeen shots in magazine. Price $48.50. And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $2 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol, 44-100 inch.

Ten per cent. discount on orders for 10 arms of a kind.

Sent by Express, C. O. D., on receipt of 20 per cent. of price. Liberal terms to dealers. For descriptive Circulars, &c., address

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act, and not elsewhere among the acts of this (the) General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the last section of this act, and the portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

The plan of Assurance adopted by the Board of Directors, is popularly known as the MASONIC PLAN.

An entrance fee is charged, payable when a party applies for a policy. No other payment is required, except on the death of a member, when an assessment of $2.50 is levied. The aggregate of Assessments is the value of the Policy.

A Policy can by this plan be secured for less, by from 50 to 100 per cent., than one for the same amount in ordinary Companies.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be reopened or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and diminishment of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absurd doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, it has wantonly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten states, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has subjected there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of the forms and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if successful can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be sold or ceded either under the preemption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the states and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pulters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance; and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. A GOOD MAN Leaveth AN INHERITANCE. PROV. XIII. 22.

NEW YORK.

Losses paid in 30 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will assure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium at or the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States.
